LIVING SIMPLY (Update):

Parishioners are invited to purchase Fair traded goods and to buy world gifts from CAFOD <https://worldgifts.cafod.org.uk>

- We are creating a “wildflower area” in St Anne's garden to help support biodiversity by allowing bees, butterflies and other species to thrive. [This should be more evident through the Spring weeks].

FAIR TRADE GOODS Fairtrade is about better prices, safe working conditions, local sustainability, and fair terms of trade for farmers and workers. You can buy Fairtrade products at <https://www.fairtrade.org.uk/> If anyone is interested in buying Fair Trade goods, Ann Kelly, of St Anne's, will be happy to speak to you and to explain the process. If you text: 07914788247 Ann will get back to you. Orders are all done on line at the moment but some catalogues will be ordered. Tradecraft find online more cost effective. It is hoped that we might have a stall at the next meeting. Many Thanks

Stafford Passion Play 2023: As most of you may be aware, it is planned to put on a Stafford Passion Play in the town this Easter. 'Love Stafford' has invited the 'Saltmine Theatre Company' (made up completely of Christians who are professional actors) to perform on the streets of Stafford at Easter 2023. All churches in and around Stafford are invited to help finance this event in whatever capacity can be offered. Looking ahead, there will be opportunities for those who would like to offer their time and interest in being an active part of the performance, eg. Members of the wider cast, musicians, singers, etc.

NB: There are 'flyers' at the back of Church showing where prayer meetings are held in various town churches. There are weekly prayer gatherings from February until March 23rd.

All of this can be

We now need to begin to build a team of stewards. There is no application form. Applications are by email using volunteer@lovestafford.org.uk. This address can also be accessed through the website above by selecting the 'Become a volunteer' option. As you will be aware there are four performances of the play 11am and 3pm on both Good Friday and Holy Saturday (Eve), 7 & 8 April 2023. It would be very helpful if in the email, volunteers can show which performances they will be able to steward. Many Thanks to you all.

CHRISTIAN FOOD HELP: Due to the ever increasing problem of food poverty, nationally and locally within many families, there is a continual need for donations. At the back of each church we have clearly marked boxes for your donations of food items. Please deposit them there so that they can be taken regularly to St Austin's, where the CFH team can arrange for their distribution. Many Thank

Volunteer for CAFOD

A vital aspect of church is people being willing to share their talents, experience and energy. Could your New Year's resolution be volunteering for CAFOD? We have lots of different ways you can get involved such as:

- In the parish - where you will be highlighting CAFOD's work to support communities globally who are living with injustices and in poverty.
- In local schools across Stafford where you'll deliver assemblies and workshops about CAFOD's work. No experience necessary. Full support, resources and regular training provided.

SYCAMORE

What do you believe?

Sycamore is an informal course about the Christian faith and its relevance for life today. It gives you space to meet other people, share ideas, explore your beliefs, and think about questions that really matter. Each session involves a short film and time for discussion.

In addition to the essential questions about life, SYCAMORE explains simply the central beliefs and practices of Catholic Christianity. Understand the seven sacraments, the moral and social teaching of the Church, the Christian vocations, the Virgin Mary and the saints, life after death, and the hope of heaven.

We meet every Monday Evening at 7pm in St Austin's Parish Meeting Room. Session 8: Everyone is welcome.

FR SIMON WRITES: It was lovely to back in Stafford a few weeks ago, and to be able to celebrate a Mass of Thanksgiving with so many parishioners. In the book of Ecclesiastes, we are told to 'eat, drink, and be merry' and this certainly was the case as we gathered socially afterwards in the School Hall. To begin to thank by name, runs the danger of forgetting someone, so thank you to everyone involved in preparing and organising the evening. A particular word of thanks for your very generous offering and the many cards, gifts, and words you so kindly gave to my parents and I. 'The curate has left the parish and has said his goodbye.' It's said that goodbye comes from the term 'godbwye' a contraction of the phrase 'God be with ye.' So let the goodbye be a blessing for us all, and let us continue to pray for one another at all times and in all places.

END NOTE: This year we will hold the Holy Week Triduum in each church separately. This is a wonderful opportunity for the parishes of St Anne and St Patrick to become totally involved; within the liturgy, the readings, the choir/singing and operating a reliable musical accompaniment etc. I do ask all of you who can offer your assistance to do so and make our celebration worthy. More information will follow shortly.
